12th ANNUAL JINGLEBELLS PRO-AM GOLF TOURNAMENT RAISES $222,000 TO BENEFIT MONIQUE BURR FOUNDATION

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (Dec. 22, 2009) – World-renowned golf celebrities and local teams recently teed up together and raised $222,000 at the 12th Annual Monique Burr Foundation Jinglebells Pro-Am Golf Tournament. Presented by AT&T, Hampton Golf and Zurich, the premier charity golf tournament brought together 23 teams of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Nationwide Tour and LPGA TOUR professionals, and golfers from across the country at The Golf Club at South Hampton.

“This event was a great success for the Monique Burr Foundation and all of the money we raised will benefit our mission to provide hope in the lives of children throughout Florida,” said Lynn Layton, executive director of the foundation. “There are so many children out there who depend on our support year round, and we cannot thank everyone enough, from the volunteers and sponsors to the players and participants.”

More than 25 celebrity golfers participated in the tournament, including Jim Furyk, Fred Funk and Mark McCumber, who also served as honorary chairpersons. Tournament chairs were M.G. Orender, Robert Castranova and Ryan Schwartz.

their needs. The foundation's mission is to provide hope in the lives of children by providing training and education to prevent and reduce the rate of abuse among children throughout Northeast Florida.

In 2008, the foundation reached more than 25,000 children with its advocacy programs, including the Good Touch Bad Touch® program, and since its inception has donated more than $2 million to child-serving agencies in the region. Currently, the foundation reaches children in 100 of the 107 public elementary schools in Duval County in addition to several private and Catholic schools in the area. It is expanding its reach to include Baker, Clay, Nassau and St. Johns counties. The foundation also works in close partnership with agencies serving children whose primary focus is preventing abuse of children.
